To Whom it May Concern:

Per 8 CFR 211.1(b) a child may be transported to the United States without a visa upon presentation of the child's birth certificate when:

1. a child was born subsequent to the issuance of an immigrant visa to his or her accompanying parent who applies for admission during the validity of such a visa; or
2. a child was born during the temporary visit abroad of a mother who is a lawful permanent resident alien, or a national, of the United States, provided that:
  - a. the child 's application for admission to the United States is made within 2 years of birth,
  - b. the child is accompanied by the parent who is applying for readmission as a permanent resident upon the first return of the parent to the United States after the birth of the child, and
  - c. the accompanying parent is found to be admissible to the United States.

The carrier of such alien shall not be liable for a fine pursuant to section 273 of the Immigration and Nationality Act.
